Professional Experience

Mr. Pipal has been a litigator since 1980. He represents both plaintiffs and defendants in commercial, products liability, personal injury and employment cases. His significant experience litigating civil matters instills confidence in his clients during the mediation process. Since 1993 he has mediated numerous cases involving personal injury, premises liability, insurance coverage, commercial and employment disputes, and over 90 percent of these cases settled as a result of his efforts. Mr. Pipal is an approved mediator in the EEOC's external mediation program. He is also an approved mediator in the Cook County Law Division's mediation program.

Mr. Pipal served as faculty in seminars on mandatory arbitration, products liability and disaster relief legal services. He has taught alternative dispute resolution to judges and specially selected attorneys in Lake and McHenry County, Illinois. Mr. Pipal serves on the Cook County Circuit Court, Law Division Special Committee on Mediation. He has written extensively, including an article on civil procedure used by the Administrative Office of the Illinois Supreme Court in the training of new judges. Mr. Pipal regularly lectures on mediation to bar groups, to law students at the University of Chicago, and to church leaders at the Theodore Hesburgh Center at Catholic Theological Union.

He is past President of the Chicago Chapter of the nation's leading alternative dispute resolution group: the Association for Conflict Resolution (ACR). Mr. Pipal was a founding board member and officer of the Coordinated Advice and Referral Program for (Pro Bono) Legal Services (CARPLS), and is actively engaged in the National Center for the Laity as its Vice President. He is also a past member of the following Boards: the Board of Directors of the Center for Conflict Resolution, the Board of Managers of the Chicago Bar Association, and the Board of Directors of Chicago Bar Foundation, among others.
