Case Manager: HAYDEE CORONADO »

Andrew T. Marshall, Board Certified in Construction Law by the Florida Bar, has extensive experience in construction defect, premises liability, and personal injury litigation. He has represented general contractors, trade subcontractors, and design professionals in complex construction matters state-wide in Florida. Lawyers certified in construction law are considered experts in matters relating to the design and construction of improvements on private and public projects. Mr. Marshall is placed among the less than one percent of Florida Bar attorneys recognized as an expert in this field.

Certified by the Florida Supreme Court as a circuit civil mediator, Mr. Marshall utilizes his unique knowledge base and experience in construction law to explore related case issues, purposefully assisting his clients resolve disputes through full-time mediation.

FEE SCHEDULE

Mediation fees are maintained online to ensure the most current information is always available. Please visit: https://marshallmediations.com/andrew-marshall for up-to-date rates.

A "party" is defined as one or more persons or entities who have a common interest and who are represented by a single attorney or firm.

MINIMUM FEE

There is a seven (7) hour minimum charge for all mediations. Time is billed in quarter-hour increments.

CANCELLATION POLICY

If a mediation is cancelled or rescheduled less than 21 calendar days prior to the scheduled session, each party will be billed for their portion of the seven (7) hour minimum fee. This policy reflects time reserved exclusively for the matter and the difficulty of refilling reserved dates on short notice.
