

Antone Melton-Meaux's CV

Antone Melton-Meaux is a Minnesota Rule 114 qualified neutral and Founder of Work Resolve Mediation. Antone facilitates an open and constructive dialogue between employees and employers that empowers them to work intentionally, diligently, and fairly to resolve workplace disputes. He brings a unique skill set to facilitating successful outcomes by leveraging his experience as a Partner at Jackson Lewis, the Chief Employment Counsel for St. Jude Medical, and a Human Resources Leader for St. Jude Medical and Abbott Laboratories.

Antone is also a mediator for commercial, civil, public accommodations, and housing disputes. Antone is the former Chair of the ADR Section for the Minnesota State Bar Association, teaches ADR courses as an Adjunct Professor, serves on the mediation panel for the American Arbitration Association (AAA), and is rated AV Preeminent® by Martindale-Hubbell for the highest level of professional excellence.

Education

- University of Virginia School of Law, J.D.
- Union Theological Seminary, M.A., Theology
- Washington University in St. Louis, B.A., Religious Studies, magna cum laude

Memberships and Civic Service

- Minnesota State Bar Association ADR Section, Former Chair
- University of Minnesota Law School, Adjunct Professor
- Hamline University Legal Studies Department, Adjunct Professor
- American Arbitration Association, Employment Panel
- Minnesota Department of Human Rights, Volunteer Mediator
- Minneapolis Department of Civil Rights, Volunteer Mediator
- Conflict Resolution Center, Former Board of Directors