

Barbara A. Reeves is a full-time arbitrator, mediator and special master with JAMS, based in Los Angeles. She has served in over 300 domestic and international disputes. Her experience includes a broad spectrum of commercial arbitration, including intellectual property, trade secrets, healthcare business disputes, sports and entertainment, professional liability, and antitrust.

As an arbitrator, BMs. Reeves is known to be fair, practical, and not afraid to make tough decisions. As a mediator, she is strong, good at listening and reading people, and a tenacious closer. She is known for her ability to quickly establish rapport with parties and counsel and enable them to recognize their legal risks. She connects and communicates with clients emotionally involved with their positions and ushers parties toward mutually acceptable solutions. She is adept at working with parties to craft practical and commercially advantageous solutions to disputes at any stage.

Ms. Reeves clerked for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, served as a trial lawyer in the United States Department of Justice, Antitrust Division in Washington, D.C. and Los Angeles, was a partner at national law firms, and then Associate General Counsel and Vice President for Southern California Edison and Edison International, before joining JAMS in January 2006.

She is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the College of Commercial Arbitrators, an arbitrator on the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne, Switzerland, and a certified mediator with the International Mediation Institute. She is also a certified e-discovery specialist.

She received her J.D. cum laude from Harvard Law School.
