

Bob Zwicky Mediation Counsel

Bob Zwicky brings a well-rounded education, wide-ranging experience and world travel to his mediation career. He spent four semesters of his undergraduate study at Carroll College with The World Campus Afloat, a ship-based university that traveled the world, visiting ports on all five continents. He also studied in Barcelona, Spain, for a semester and traveled with a student group in Eastern Europe and Russia. He then attended the William & Mary School of Law at The University of Exeter in Great Britain for a semester while completing his degree at the University of Denver School of Law.

Bob began working in private practice as a criminal defense attorney and has trial experience in felony and murder cases. Early in his career, he also had a family law practice and litigated contract and commercial disputes. Later, Bob spent over 12 years as a defense attorney litigating hundreds of personal injury cases. At various times in his career, Bob has been appointed by the court to serve as a Special Master in complex litigation cases.

Bob has been a full-time Circuit Civil Mediator since 2004, and has mediated several thousand cases.

He is active in many outdoor activities that include sailing, bicycling, kayaking, paddle-boarding, rollerblading, cross-country skiing, snow-shoeing, ice-skating, and ice-boating. He is an avid reader of both fiction and non-fiction, and does some writing himself. Bob enjoys foreign movies and documentaries. He drinks Johnnie Walker Red on the rocks with a twist of lemon.
