

Brian J. Mone, Esquire

Brian Mone is a Harvard Law School certified mediator who has successfully mediated a large number of complex, multi-party, high stakes cases, including the DelValle vs. Bechtel, et al, Big Dig tunnel collapse, the New York City Deutsche Bank building fire cases, the Springfield Diocese sexual abuse cases and the Redemptionist Church of Texas sexual abuse cases.

Education

University of Massachusetts – Amherst, B.A. 1978
Suffolk University School of Law, J.D. 1982

Admission to Practice

1982

Massachusetts Bar

1983

United States District Court for Massachusetts

2000

United States Court of Appeals – First Circuit

Professional

2007 to present

President and Chief Operating Officer, Commonwealth Mediation & Conciliation, Inc.

2005 – 2006

President - M & H Resolutions, Inc.

1983 – 2005

Partner — Mone, D'Ambrose & Hanyen, P.C., Brockton, MA

1986

Special Assistant District Attorney, Barnstable County

Brian Mone has mediated thousands of cases over the past seven years. He has mediated a significant number of high profile cases including the DelValle v. Bechtel Big Dig tunnel collapse, the Middletown CT Kleen Energy Gas plant explosion insurance priority dispute, the New York City Deutsche Bank fire, Hurricane Katrina insurance coverage, EIFS cases out of the United States District Court, Eastern District of North Carolina and District of Massachusetts. He has also mediated multi-party toxic tort, land contamination, land takings, product liability automobile rollover and seatbelt claims, as well as other commercial and business related claims.

Brian Mone has extensive experience mediating in the following areas:

- Commercial/business litigation
- Construction

- Construction defects
- Contracts
- Eminent domain
- Employment
- Entertainment
- Fire losses
- Insurance
- Labor
- Land contamination
- Legal malpractice
- Major subrogation claims
- Medical malpractice
- Personal injury
- Products liability
- Professional liability
- Sexual abuse
- Toxic tort
- Water damage

Mr. Mone was a practicing trial attorney for 23 years in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Mr. Mone tried hundreds of cases in the Superior Courts and the United States District Court of Massachusetts, before judges and juries, on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants in cases stemming from construction site accidents, contractual indemnification claims, premises liability, product liability claims, unfair claim settlement practices, motor vehicle accidents, fires, M.G.L. 93A claims and insurance coverage disputes.

In his career as a mediator he has served as a guest lecturer on mediation and arbitration for the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education program as well as for insurers, plaintiff's groups and the Massachusetts Defense Lawyers Association.

Affiliations

Massachusetts Bar Association

Life Fellow, Massachusetts Bar Foundation

Guest Speaker, Massachusetts Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Program

Medical Malpractice Tribunal Member, Plymouth County Superior Court

Screen Actors Guild

Board of Managers – New Seabury Club

Founding Member – Federal Mediation and Litigation Associates

Request Appointment

Back to Neutrals List

© 2010 Commonwealth Mediation and Conciliation, Inc. | Design by Clearpoint