BIO OF BRUCE W. ROBINSON

Bruce W. Robinson is the President of Robinson, Kennon & Kendron, P.A., and was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1972. Since then, he has practiced throughout North Central Florida. He is a 1971 graduate of the University of Florida Law School with Honors, and a graduate of Florida State University in 1966. Mr. Robinson is a board-certified, civil trial lawyer, and has been since the first exam was given in 1983. He has, in fact, served five (5) years on the Civil Trial Certification Committee, and served as a member of the Board of Governors for the Florida Bar for six (6) years. In addition, he has served on the Florida Bar Code and Rules of Evidence Committee, the Civil Rules of Procedure Committee and the Law School Education and Admissions Committee. Mr. Robinson is an experienced trial lawyer, and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. His work involves litigation and mediation since his certification as a Supreme Court Certified Circuit-Civil Mediator in 1991. Mr. Robinson has been, and continues to be, active both as a civil trial lawyer and a civil mediator in personal injury, commercial, environmental and administrative matters.

Mr. Robinson is admitted to the United States District Court, Middle District of Florida; the United States District, Northern District of Florida; the United States Court of Appeals 5th Circuit; and the United States Court of Appeals 11th Circuit; as well as the Florida Bar.

While as a student in his undergraduate years, he was selected for Omicron Delta Kappa and Gold Key at Florida State University. Following graduation from Florida State University, he ultimately became a Captain in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, and was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal with Combat V for service in Vietnam.

He is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates and the American Inns of Court. Mr. Robinson also served as President of the Lake City, Columbia County, Chamber of Commerce in 1978, and has served a number of years as a member of the Board of Directors of the Lake City, Columbia County, Chamber of Commerce. He continues to be active both professionally and in his community, and actively practices in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 8th Circuits of the State of Florida.
