

Casey Crumbley

Casey C. Crumbley is an experienced mediator, arbitrator, and a veteran trial lawyer who has mediated hundreds of cases. In addition, many mediators have observed his mediations as part of their mediation training. Casey specializes in matters involving workers' compensation, business litigation, general civil litigation, personal injury, estate planning and probate matters, and corporate/business formation.

He is recognized as a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers. In addition, he is a board member of the Dispute Resolution Section for the State Bar of Georgia and has previously served as a mediation coach for the University of Georgia School of Law.

Casey is a past president of the Henry County Bar Association, and currently a major in the Georgia Air National Guard, where he serves as an assistant staff judge advocate.

Education

- The Citadel, Bachelor of Science (BS), Business Administration
- Faulkner University, J.D.

Admitted to Practice

- Supreme Court of South Carolina
- South Carolina Court of Appeals
- Supreme Court of Georgia
- Georgia Court of Appeals
- 11th Circuit Court of Appeals
- United States District Court for the District of South Carolina
- United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia
- State Bars of South Carolina and Georgia

Community Involvement

- Henry County Development Authority, Board of Directors, District 1 (2018 – 2019)
- Henry County Bar Association, Officer (2018 – 2020)
- Henry County Bar Association President (2021)