Deborah A. Buccina

We are pleased to offer mediation and arbitration services through Deborah Buccina. Recognized as a successful civil litigator, the majority of Deb's cases in the civil arena involve personal injury claims, and she represents both plaintiffs and defendants. With her trial experience beginning in 1981 as a prosecutor and continuing from 1985 to the present in civil litigation, she has expanded her practice to include mediation and arbitration services. Since beginning her mediation practice, Deborah has achieved a very high success rate in reaching resolution of cases. Her 30-year experience with juries as well as her ability to connect with the participants in the mediation process have contributed to her successful results.
