

DEBORAH C. DRYLIE

Born September 11, 1963, Gainesville, Florida, to David and Sara Drylie; High School – Oak Hall School, class of 1981

Degrees: Salem College, B.A. in History, 1985.

University of Florida, J.D., 1988.

Admitted to Florida Bar, February 1989.

Admitted to Kentucky Bar, September 1989.

Partner in law firm of Carter & Drylie, P.A. Law practice solely in the area of insurance defense. Clients include: The Hartford, Firemen’s Fund, Tower Hill Insurance Group, Hanover, State Farm Fire & Casualty, The Kemper Group, Publix Supermarkets, Inc., Tractor Supply Company, American States, Fortune Insurance Company, Aries Insurance Company, Gallagher Bassett, Sumter County, Citizen's Insurance Company, Massachusetts Bay Company.

Member of the Florida Bar, Kentucky Bar, Eighth Judicial Circuit Bar Association, Florida Defense Lawyers Association, Florida Academy of Health Care Lawyers, Middle District Court (Federal) of Florida; Eighth Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee.

Member of the Ethics Committee, North Florida Regional Medical Center, Board of Directors of Dance Alive Ballet Company, (1995 - 2000).

Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil Mediator.

Personal: married to Charles Carter, attorney and mediator; daughter Katharine Carter, attends Young Harris College in Georgia.