

Donna Greenspan Solomon, Esq., handles business-related appeals, mediation, and arbitration. Donna is a Florida Supreme Court Qualified Arbitrator, a FINRA Chair-Approved Arbitrator, and a Chair-Approved Member of the American Arbitration Association's Roster of Arbitrators (Commercial Panel). She is a Diplomate Member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. Donna is also a Certified Circuit, Appellate, and Family Mediator.

Donna is one of only three attorneys certified by The Florida Bar as both Appellate Specialist and Business Litigator. Donna serves on The Florida Supreme Court Committee on Standard Jury Instructions (Contract and Business Cases). She is a former Chair of The Florida Bar's Business Litigation Certification Committee.

Donna is a member of the Palm Beach County Bar Association's Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and publishes periodic Arbitration Case Law Updates on the ADR Corner of the Association's Bulletin. Donna is a frequent speaker on appellate and ADR issues.

After graduating No. 1 from the Shepard Broad Law Center at Nova Southeastern University, Donna clerked at the Fourth District Court of Appeal for the Hon. Barbara J. Pariente (ret). Following her clerkship, Donna was with a national law firm for twelve years before opening her own firm, Solomon Appeals, Mediation & Arbitration, in 2011.

Before becoming a lawyer, Donna was a CPA with an MBA in finance. Donna worked for Price Waterhouse in New York City and later became a Manager of Accounting and Financial Reporting for Penn Central Corporation. After moving to Florida, Donna became an Assistant Vice President/Manager of Financial Reporting for Intercontinental Bank in Miami, and then performed financial systems analysis for American Express before entering law school.
