

EDWIN W. BOWDEN, Mediator

1102 Reynolda Rd., Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27104 | (336) 749-4547 | ed@bowdengardner.com

Profile

Certified as a mediator in 2014. Have mediated multiple hundreds of cases since including personal injury, premises liability, wrongful death, insurance coverage, construction defect, business disputes, breach of contract, unfair and deceptive trade practices, real estate disputes, alienation of affection, and various other subject matters. Commitment is to comprehensively address the issues sufficient to give settlement the best possible chance and to only end the negotiation when there is no other choice. Every litigant at mediation is entitled to be properly heard and to the full-on effort of the mediator.

Civil Litigation Experience

FULLTIME MEDIATING, BOWDEN GARDNER & HILL, PC | 2022 – PRESENT

- Present work is exclusively focused on mediation.

LITIGATION PRACTICE, BOWDEN GARDNER & HILL P.C. | 2005-2022

- Defense practice. Protected the interests of insured persons and insurance carriers in all variety of circumstances.
- Plaintiff's practice. Represented numerous individuals in personal injury cases involving most commonly auto accidents, premises liability, construction site accidents, wrongful death, and various intentional torts.
- Handled insurance coverage questions for insurers.
- Business litigation. Represented both plaintiffs and defendants in business conflicts.

LITIGATION PRACTICE, ORBOCK BOWDEN RUARK & DILLARD, P.C. | 1995-2005

- Maintained both a defense and plaintiff's practice. Also handled workers' compensation subrogation issues that entailed filing third-party lawsuits against defendants.

LITIGATION PRACTICE, KILPATRICK TOWNSEND (formerly known as PETREE STOCKTON & ROBINSON) | 1989-1995

- Provided civil litigation defense services to insureds and insurance clients.

Education

J.D., WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY, LAW REVIEW, CUM LAUD GRADUATE | 1989
B.S. IN ECONOMICS, ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY, 1983

Activities and Interests

Tennis, nature, music and guitar, creative writing, travel