

Emile H. Banks, Jr., is founder and shareholder in the firm of Emile Banks & Associates LLC, a nine-attorney trial counsel litigation firm located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Mr. Banks has been named Top 10 Attorneys in Wisconsin by Thomsen Reuters Super Lawyer selection committee in 2021 and 2022. He is also a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the premier legal association in the United States for trial lawyers comprising of the top 1% of trial counsel in the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only. In addition, Mr. Banks is past President of ABOTA (American Board of Trial Advocates). ABOTA is another invitation-only organization. Its members must exhibit the virtues of civility, integrity and professionalism by following their Code of Professionalism and Principles of Civility. He is also a member of DRI and the International Association of Defense Counsel, the oldest and most prestigious international organization of attorneys representing corporations and insurers. Membership in the IADC is a select privilege and also by invitation only. Mr. Banks is also in two other invitation-only and very select prestigious national legal associations: Litigation Counsel of America (Top ½% of Trial Lawyers) and International Association of Barristers. He has also been voted 2021 Best of the Best Mediators in Wisconsin by Wisconsin Law Journal for the past five years. In 2015 and 2021 respectively he was named Lawyer of the Year - Insurance Law by Best Lawyers publication.