

Evan S. Goldstein conducts mediations and arbitrations and serves as a special master and discovery master in civil cases. He also serves as an insurance appraisal umpire. He is “AV” rated as a lawyer by Martindale-Hubbell and has acted as a speaker teaching voir dire at Arizona State University College of Law. He has chaired and participated as an instructor in many continuing legal education training seminars and courses.

Mr. Goldstein has broad and varied litigation experience that includes handling professional liability, personal injury, product liability, construction, insurance coverage, and commercial litigation matters. He has been certified as an Injury and Wrongful Death Litigation Specialist by the Arizona Board of Legal Specialization since 1999. He has been listed in Southwest Super lawyers since 2010, is included among Arizona’s Finest Lawyers and is a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals.

Mr. Goldstein is committed to alternative dispute resolution. He first became involved in ADR by participating and later conducting mediation through the Maricopa County Superior Court in the early 1990s. Due to his litigation experience in representing both plaintiffs and defendants, he is frequently selected as a private mediator to assist parties in evaluation and settlement of their disputes. He also serves as an arbitrator in Uninsured and Underinsured litigation and other commercial disputes subject to arbitration as well as umpire in real property appraisals. He has been a guest speaker on multiple occasions in not only continuing legal education courses, but through the Arizona Trial Lawyers Association and State Bar of Arizona.
