

Gaynor St. John

Gaynor St. John offers a wealth of civil litigation experience spanning 30 years of practice and more than 55 civil jury trials to verdict.

Gaynor is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and serves as the College's Alabama State Chair. Litigating parties and their attorneys benefit from Gaynor's extensive, trial-tested knowledge of disputes in:

- Healthcare litigation
- Personal injury
- Medical malpractice
- Professional liability
- Insurance defense
- Workers' compensation
- Employment litigation
- Business litigation

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Bar Association

Alabama State Bar

Alabama Defense Lawyers Association

Cullman County Bar Association: Treasurer

HONORS AND AWARDS

Fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers

Associate, American Board of Trial Advocates

Phi Beta Kappa

RECENT PRESENTATIONS

"Mediation: Mistakes to Avoid - Beginning to End" (CLE webinar moderator), Alabama Defense Lawyers Association, April 18, 2023

BAR ADMISSIONS

Alabama, 1992

Ohio, 1987

EDUCATION

J.D., University of Cincinnati College of Law, 1987

B.S., Psychology, Denison University, 1984

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Cullman City Schools Foundation: Past Board Member

Cullman County Chamber of Commerce: Past Board Member

Cullman County PALS: Past President