

Harold G. Korbbee

Mr. Korbbee is a civil trial lawyer whose litigation experience includes the evaluation and trial of medical negligence and personal injury cases, employment law and employee benefit matters.

Mr. Korbbee has published articles on a wide variety of topics including trustee fiduciary responsibility, selection and use of legal counsel in employee benefit plans and ERISA plan termination and mergers. He has drafted and designed multi-employer health care plans and advised plan administrators on claim appeals and risk management. He has been a frequent speaker for companies, unions, and Boards of Trustees throughout the United States since the Enactment of ERISA in 1974. Prior to beginning his practice of law, Mr. Korbbee served as a claim representative for the Insurance Company of North America.

Since joining the firm of Wood & Lamping in 1981, Mr. Korbbee has served as chair and co-chair of the firm's Litigation and Labor Department and as the firm's Managing Partner from 1987-1993 and again in 2003. Mr. Korbbee has also served as an arbitrator in numerous cases for the American Arbitration Association.

Mr. Korbbee has been selected as one of Ohio's Super Lawyers, every year since the inception of the recognition program began in 2004, by the publishers of Law and Politics magazine.
