

JEFFREY KYLE ANDERSON
Mediation and Arbitration Services
26 Century Hill Drive
Suite 206
Latham, New York 12110
anderson@amtinjurylaw.com
518-331-0492

Over the past 15 years, Mr. Anderson has mediated and arbitrated more than 2,000 state and federal court cases, ranging in value from $50,000 to 12 million dollars; from two party “slip and fall” to complicated construction, medical negligence, products liability, commercial, employment, and property damage claims. He mediates and arbitrates cases throughout the State of New York.

Mr. Anderson served as Chair of the 1340-member Dispute Resolution Section of the New York State Bar Association from 2023 to 2024. He served as Co-Chair of the DRS Upstate Committee from 2024 to 2025, and continues to be active in supporting the expansion of both private and Court annexed mediation in New York. In April of 2025, was appointed to serve as a member of the Advisory Committee on Alternative Resolution by the Honorable Rowan Wilson, Chief Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals.

Mr. Anderson completed mediation training at the Harvard Negotiation Institute of Harvard Law School in 2010. In 2014 he was trained in commercial mediation at Fordham Law School, sponsored by the New York State Bar Association. In 2018 he completed advanced mediation training through the American Bar Association’s Section of Dispute Resolution. From 2017 through 2022, he was an Adjunct Professor at Albany Law School, where he taught Alternative Dispute Resolution to second- and third-year law students.

Mr. Anderson is frequently asked to chair and speak on mediation and arbitration for litigators and neutrals, and to train and mentor new practitioners in dispute resolution. He has spoken at programs sponsored by the New York State Bar Association, Capital District Trial Lawyers’ Association and Albany County Bar Association. In October of 2020 he chaired a program sponsored by the New York State Bar Association entitled: ADR for the Tort Litigator: What is it? Which to Choose and How to Prepare. His article entitled Alternative Dispute Resolution and the Personal Injury Attorney: Coming of Age, was published in October 2020 by the Albany County Bar Association. In July of 2021 Mr. Anderson was a speaker and trainer for The Nassau Academy of Law and Nassau County Bar Association's program: Personal Injury Mediation Training, and in December of that year was a speaker and trainer for the three-day program: Personal Injury Advanced Mediation Training Program, sponsored by the New York State Bar Association.

Additional examples of Mr. Anderson's involvement in alternative dispute resolution include the following. In the Spring of 2022, he presented a program entitled: ADR in 2022 for the Plaintiff and Defense Practitioner: How to Prepare for and Mediate the Personal Injury Case. As Chair-Elect of the Dispute Resolution Section, Mr. Anderson moderated a roundtable panel discussion entitled: The Mediator's Toolbox: Practical and Ethical Considerations to Avoid or Break Impasse, at the Section's 2022 Fall Meeting. At the 2024 DRS Spring Meeting, he moderated a roundtable panel discussion entitled: For Better or Worse: The Marriage of Technology and Dispute Resolution-Where We've Been, Where We Are and What Lies Ahead. In addition, in June of 2025, he served on a panel presentation for a program sponsored by the Federal Court Bar Association entitled: Mediation Mastery-Practical Techniques & Essential Ethics.

Additionally, for over forty-two years, Mr. Anderson has litigated for his clients in personal injury and wrongful death cases arising from automobile accidents, defective products, medical negligence, construction site accidents and unsafe premises. In 2018, he obtained a settlement of $17.45 million on behalf of a client who was rendered a quadriplegic in a skiing accident. He is managing partner of Anderson, Moschetti & Taffany, PLLC in Latham, New York, founded in 2002. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree Cum Laude from Colgate University in 1978 and Juris Doctor Degree from Albany Law School of Union University in 1981.

Mr. Anderson is admitted to practice in New York State courts, and in the federal court for the Northern District of New York. He is a member of the American Bar Association, American Association for Justice, New York State Bar Association, New York State Trial Lawyers Association (former member Board of Directors), Albany, Rensselaer and Saratoga County Bar Associations, and is a member and past President of the Capital District Trial Lawyers Association (1998-1999).

Over the past four decades, Mr. Anderson has taught at programs on personal injury, products liability, medical malpractice, and trial practice. He has spoken at numerous annual Decisions programs for the New York State Trial Lawyers Association, and at programs for the Capital District Trial Lawyers Association, New York State Bar Association, American Bar Association, American Association for Justice, Society of Safety Engineers, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, National Business Institute, and community-based organizations. In 2008 he authored a chapter on Products Liability

Law for the two-volume treatise The Plaintiff's Personal Injury Action in New York, published by the New York State Bar Association; updated in 2021.

For over a decade, Mr. Anderson has been rated AV Preeminent by Martindale- Hubbell, most recently for 2025. He has been recognized by his peers annually since 2016 for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America in the practice areas of products liability, personal injury, and medical malpractice; and annually voted one of the top attorneys in Upstate New York in Super Lawyers. In 2023, he received The Daniel H. Mahoney Award from the Capital District Trial Lawyers Association, for outstanding commitment and service to client, Bar and profession.