SUMMARY:

Jon Lilleberg is an owner of Lilleberg & Hopewell. Since 1991 he has practiced primarily in commercial and insurance litigation areas. He represents numerous self-insureds and insurance companies in first and third-party litigation, trucking litigation, products liability, employer liability and workers' compensation subrogation. His practice often involves complex litigation, high profile cases, and catastrophic losses. Mr. Lilleberg also serves as a mediator and arbitrator in a variety of commercial and personal injury matters and is a qualified civil neutral in Minnesota.

He has been selected by his peers as a "Minnesota Super Lawyer" in Law and Politics since 2008, and is listed in Martindale-Hubbell with the highest ratings for professional legal ability and faithful adherence to ethical standards, professional reliability, and diligence. Mr. Lilleberg's litigation interests are an outgrowth of his pre-law experience as a claims professional for five years. His insurance and litigation background give him a unique ability to provide accurate, early case evaluations and effective recommendations and analyses. He is a 1991 graduate of William Mitchell College of Law, played football for the University of Minnesota under Lou Holtz, and was the team captain in 1985. He is licensed to practice in all Minnesota courts, the Eighth Circuit, Federal Court for the Western District of Wisconsin, and in Wisconsin State Court.
