Joshua Martin became a partner at the law firm of Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP in March, 2005. He concentrates his law practice on mediation and arbitration and on business counseling, particularly in the areas of telecommunications, public utilities and governmental relations. He was Chair of Potter Anderson's Diversity and Inclusion Committee from 2005-2016. He retired from the Partnership in December, 2013 and is now Senior Counsel with the firm.

His Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) experience includes multi-million dollar settlements in high-profile private mediation cases, in addition to substantial experience as an arbitrator in private arbitration matters and in Delaware Superior Court Rule 16 matters. He taught ADR at Widener Law School from 1986-1995 and judicial mediation at the National Judicial College from 1988-1990. He has participated as an arbitrator in complex commercial matters under AAA rules. He is a member of the AAA Roster of Neutrals and the CPR Panel of Distinguished Neutrals. Mr. Martin was on the Special Master Panel of the U.S. District Court in Delaware until 2015 and has served as a Special Master for the District Court in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He was elected a Fellow of the prestigious College of Commercial Arbitrators in 2016 and elected in 2018 to the Tech List of the Silicon Valley Arbitration and Mediation Center. He has served as an arbiter in a number of related matters including as a hearing officer in healthcare cases and special master in various types of civil matters.

In January, 2009, Joshua Martin was appointed by Delaware Governor Jack Markell to chair the Delaware Economic & Financial Advisory Council (DEFAC), the public-private council that forecasts state revenues and expenditures used by the governor and Legislature to prepare state budgets and to determine state fiscal policy. In 2015 he chaired the DEFAC Advisory Council on Revenues and was appointed a member of the Delaware Expenditure Review Committee, which issued its report on state spending in 2016. In 2017, he was appointed by Governor Carney to the Council on Development Finance, an advisory entity which considers matters relating to economic development and strategic opportunities for the State of Delaware.

In May, 2007, Mr. Martin was jointly selected by the Delaware Department of Correction and the United States Department of Justice to serve as the Independent Monitor overseeing the progress of an agreement relating to prison medical and mental health care in four Department of Correction institutions.

Mr. Martin was President and Chief Executive Officer of Verizon Delaware Inc. and its predecessor company, Bell Atlantic Delaware Inc., from 1996 until early 2005. Mr. Martin oversaw all aspects of Verizon's telecommunications business within the State of Delaware, including regulatory, financial and operational matters. Mr. Martin joined Verizon as Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of the Delaware Company on January 2, 1990.

Prior to joining Verizon, Joshua Martin was a Delaware Superior Court Judge for eight years. Earlier, he served on the Delaware Public Service Commission from 1978 to 1982, including three years as Chairman.

After obtaining his law degree, Mr. Martin joined Hercules, Incorporated, where he was a patent attorney until 1982. Mr. Martin began his professional career as a physicist at the DuPont Company in 1966.

A leader in education, as well as professional and community organizations, Mr. Martin is: Director - Southwest Power Pool, Inc.; Director, Bradford Holdings Company; Director Emeritus - SCANA Corporation; Former Trustee - Winterthur Museum; Trustee and Former Director - Christiana Care Corporation; Fellow - American Bar Foundation; Trustee Emeritus - Case Western Reserve University; Life Trustee - Goldey-Beacom College; former Director and Vice Chairman - Nuclear Electric Insurance Ltd. (2000-2009); and former Director - PNC Bank Delaware (1990-2007). He was designated Distinguished Alumni of the Year by Case Western Reserve University in 2016.

Joshua Martin's former community and professional activities include: President - Delaware State Bar Association; Chairman - Wilmington Renaissance Corporation; Chairman - United Way of Delaware; Trustee - Delaware Community Foundation; Trustee - Wilmington Friends School; Member - New Castle County Vo-Tech School Board; and Chairman - YMCA Black Achievers Program. He received the J. Michael Brown Award from the DuPont Company Minority Counsel Conference in 2014. Along with his wife Cynthia Primo Martin, he received the prestigious United Way Tocqueville Society Award in 2006.

Mr. Martin holds honorary degrees from Widener University and Goldey-Beacom College. In November, 1999, The News Journal in Wilmington nominated him as Delawarean of the Century in Business. He received the Arthur E. Armitage Sr., Distinguished Alumni Award from Rutgers School of Law in 1998 for service to the community and contributions to the legal profession. He has been included in The Best Lawyers in America publication for 2007-2022 and was selected in 2013 and 2017 as Lawyer of the Year for Arbitration in Wilmington, Delaware and as Lawyer of the Year for Mediation in 2019 and 2022, by The Best Lawyers in America. He was awarded the First State Distinguished Service Award in 2013 by the Delaware State Bar Association and the Josiah Marvel Cup, with his wife Cynthia, by the Delaware Chamber of Commerce in 2019.
