Kenneth F. Neuman, Esq., is the founding shareholder of Altior Law, P.C., a boutique business law firm in Birmingham, Michigan. Mr. Neuman specializes in complex commercial litigation and business consulting, with a focus on corporate, real estate, construction, accounting malpractice, banking and automotive disputes. Mr. Neuman brings 40 years of experience in litigating and trying numerous cases both on behalf of plaintiffs and defendants, in all areas of the law in which he practices.

In addition to his law degree, Mr. Neuman is a registered Certified Public Accountant and member of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants and practiced in the Detroit office of Ernst and Whinney, and as part of the tax group for General Motors Corporation, before beginning his legal career. Further, Mr. Neuman has served as a Court appointed facilitator/mediator in more than 200 cases from the United States District Court as well as the Business Courts for Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw, St. Clair and Kent Counties. Moreover, Mr. Neuman has served as an arbitrator (as a sole arbitrator, a party appointed arbitrator, or as the neutral), on numerous large commercial cases, including shareholder oppression cases, construction disputes, reinsurance claims, automotive supplier disputes and breach of contract actions. He also has served as a court-appointed receiver for various companies in and around Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties.

Mr. Neuman currently serves as Chair of the Board of Visitors for his alma mater, Wayne State University Law School and is a Director of the Western Golf Association for the Evans Scholar Foundation. He also recently completed a 3-year term as a member of the Oakland County Bar Association's Board of Directors and a 6-year term as a Master in the American Inns Of Court program.
