Attorney LINDA MEALEY-LOHMANN is an experienced Mediator and Arbitrator who practices exclusively in the area of ADR, handling primarily employment and commercial disputes. She has mediated over 350 disputes and has more than 250 hours of arbitration experience. Prior to her work as an ADR Neutral, Linda was an employment law litigator who counseled and represented clients in discrimination lawsuits in court, arbitration, and mediation (beginning in 1991).

Linda was recognized as a Minnesota Super Lawyer in 2017, 2016, and 2015, and was selected as one of the 2015 Women in Business honorees by the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal.

As part of her ADR practice, Linda also serves as a Mediator on a number of ADR panels: the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (since 2004), the U.S. Postal Service REDRESS Transformative Mediation Program (since 2007), ValueSolve ADR (since 2011) and the American Arbitration Association (since 2012). Linda serves as an Arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association and the Better Business Bureau. She is fluent in Mandarin Chinese and has lived in and traveled extensively to China for over thirty years.

She is a co-author of The Minnesota ADR Handbook: A Guide to Mediation, Arbitration, and Other Processes for Advocates and Neutrals (MN CLE 2011). She was an Adjunct Professor at William Mitchell College of Law, teaching ADR (negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and other Rule 114 ADR processes) for 10 years. Linda was the Chair of the ADR Section of the MN State Bar Association (2013-2015 terms) and is a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. Linda is a frequent presenter for MN CLE and has written and presented extensively on ADR, mediation, and employment law topics since 1995.
