

MARK F. DEHLER

Mediator, Arbitrator, Special Master, Receiver, and Guardian ad Litem

(404) 862-6205
mark@dehlerlaw.com

144 Bradford Drive
Macon, GA 31210-1267

Based in Macon, Mark has served as a mediator (www.georgiamediators.org/mark-dehler), arbitrator, special master, receiver, and guardian ad litem throughout the State of Georgia for more than 25 years. He draws from a wide range of civil litigation, government, and political experiences spanning over 33 years and in significantly different areas of practice and demographic areas of Georgia.

Current Professional Qualifications, Affiliations, and Activities:

- Admitted to the State Bar of Georgia in 1984 and admitted to practice in all state and federal courts in Georgia, and the U.S. Supreme Court.
- Certified Neutral (civil mediation and arbitration), Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution, 1999 – present.
- General Practice and Trial Section, State Bar of Georgia: Executive Committee, 1999 – 2004, Chair 2002 – 2003; Trustee, 2004 – present.
- Alternate Dispute Resolution Section, State Bar of Georgia: Executive Committee, 2017 – present.
- Adjunct professor, Mercer University School of Law, Spring, 2018. (Adjunct professor of Political Science, Young Harris College, 2010-2017.)

Education:

- Wake Forest University, BA, Biology, 1976, Distinguished Military Graduate.
- Emory University, JD, 1984, Distinguished Service Award.

Current Community Activities:

Rotary International: member since 1990, Paul Harris Fellow, Will Watt Fellow, and past club president; currently a senior active member of the Rotary Club of Macon.

Military Service:

U.S. Army, 1976 – 1981: graduated from the U.S. Army Airborne and Ranger schools; twice received the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service; and was honorably discharged as a Captain.