

Matthew J. Story

1035 Royalist Road, Mount Pleasant, SC 29464

(843) 577-2026

mstory@clawsonandstaubes.com

Experience

Managing Member

Clawson and Staubes, LLC, Charleston, SC

February 1, 1993 - Present

Managing Member of Clawson and Staubes, LLC. Over 30 years in the practice of law. Tried over 200 cases to verdict for individuals and corporations and represents individuals, local businesses, state agencies and major insurance carriers, appearing at every level in his workers compensation and litigation practice. Also practices in the areas of insurance coverage litigation, premises liability, product liability, and municipal litigation.

South Carolina Certified Mediator. Mediates 100 tort and workers compensation cases each year. With extensive trial experience, understands the value of reasoned discussion and compromise, which help parties avoid unnecessary litigation and bring resolution to conflict.

Lectured before various organizations on issues related to tort and workers' compensation law. Appears before the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission representing individuals, employers, self-insured and insurance carriers, as well as state agencies. Tries numerous cases each year throughout South Carolina.

Education

University of Georgia

Juris Doctorate, 1990

Bachelor of Art, Journalism, 1987

Professional Associations and Memberships

South Carolina Bar, State Bar of Georgia, North Carolina State Bar, Defense Research Institute, SC Workers Compensation Educational Association, American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA)