

NICHOLAS J. STROUMTSOS Judge Superior Court of New Jersey (Ret)

Judge Nicholas J. Stroumtsos (Ret.) has maintains a practice, , devoted exclusively to Alternative Dispute Resolution. Judge Stroumtsos specializes in mediation, arbitration and as a Special Master for Federal and State matters arising from complex civil litigation. Since the pandemic, he has maintained his mediation practice via Zoom conferencing.

Judge Stroumtsos served as a Judge on the New Jersey Superior Court for 18 years in Essex and Middlesex Counties, for eight of those years he was the Acting Assignment Judge of the Middlesex Vicinage. His judicial experience encompasses presiding over numerous high profile matters involving Fortune 500 companies in such diverse industries as health care, insurance, telecommunications and utilities. During his tenure he presided over matters that included regional, multi-city, multi-state and international clients that resulted in many of New Jersey's and the nation's largest financial verdicts and negotiated settlements. Judge Stroumtsos in his present practice has experience handling a wide range of matters including complex commercial litigation, personal injury matters, insurance coverage issues, contracts, product liability, corporate commercial ventures, federal and state environmental law, civil rights, defamation, professional and medical malpractice, and asbestos litigation. Judge Stroumtsos is widely recognized by the professional community as a jurist skilled in his ability to sum up complex concepts with a direct, tight, straight forward, no nonsense approach that produces sound, fair results. He is acknowledged for his insight and ability to distill complex issues efficiently. Judge Stroumtsos prides himself for working at the intersection of law and common sense to forge realistic and fair decisions.

During his judicial career Judge Stroumtsos has served on numerous Supreme Court and Bar Association Committees, since his retirement he has addressed various professional groups and presented continuing legal education classes. He is a member of the Middlesex County, New Jersey and American Bar Associations. He is a trustee of the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey. While an attorney he was recognized as Certified Trial Attorney, Admitted to the United States Supreme Court and the 2nd and 3rd Federal Courts of Appeal. Privately, he has been involved in local civic and cultural endeavors which allow him to understand the regions' political and economic complexities.

Representative Settlements include the following:

Amazon, Dunkin Donuts, FedEx, Ford Motor Company, Home Depot, Johns Manville Corp., Shop Rite, State of New Jersey, and United Parcel Service

101 Eisenhower Parkway
Suite 300
Roseland, NJ 07068