

PATRICK J. MASTRONARDO

RESUME OF EXPERIENCE

ATTORNEY: Member of New York State Bar, retired in good standing.

1998 – to Date, Provider of Conflict Management Services in Florida: Florida Supreme Court certified mediator in Circuit Civil, Family, Dependency, County, and Appellate, and qualified as an Arbitrator. Mediated 3,000 civil, family (including elder care), dependency, and residential foreclosure cases; provided business consulting services; and arbitrated disputes privately and under pro bono programs. Other experience includes acting as a Court appointed Parenting Coordinator in twenty Orange County high conflict post-divorce cases; a former volunteer Harbor House court advocate for victims of domestic violence; and an active volunteer in the Seminole County Guardian ad Litem Program. Member of The Florida Supreme Court's Mediator Ethics Advisory Committee; a Director of and a contributing writer for The Florida Academy of Professional Mediators; and a member of the National Association of Distinguished Neutrals.

1981 – 1998, Entrepreneur: Purchased a business in a Chapter XI bankruptcy proceeding. Successfully reorganized the Company, and managed it as sole owner for 17 years. Corporation manufactured and imported consumer electronic accessories, employed up to 100 persons, and maintained distribution and assembly facilities in New Jersey, Los Angeles, and Toronto. Utilizing independent sales representatives, the Company sold its products to national retailers (major customer Walmart) and to music store chains in U.S.A. and Canada

1978 – 1981, Private Financial Consultant: Provided financial consulting services to realty investors and to independent owners of ocean going vessels operating under flags of convenience.

1972 – 1978, Chief Financial Officer (CFO): for a vertically integrated, privately owned, regional producer of dairy and food products with multi state sales through 200 company owned convenience stores and, as territory franchisor, through 200 franchised Dairy Queen outlets. Obtained short and long term bank borrowings and tax exempt financing to support operations.

1964 – 1972, Commercial Banker: Rose to position of Vice President managing bank's Wall Street office. Responsible for originating a diverse portfolio of commercial loans to companies engaged in domestic and international trade, to member firms of national stock exchanges and municipal bond houses, and to independent owners of ocean going vessels operated under American and foreign flags of convenience. Responsibility included maritime loan workouts.

MILITARY SERVICE: Enlisted in U. S. Army Air Force for one year active duty and six years of Reserve duty. Honorably discharged .

EDUCATION: Graduate of Fordham University, School of Business and School of Law, earning B.S. (Marketing) and JD degrees respectively. Member of Fordham Law Review.

Website: www.patsolution.com