LEGAL BACKGROUND:

I have practiced law in the Waterloo/Cedar Falls vicinity since 1974 specializing in the area of personal injury litigation both as plaintiff counsel and as counsel for the defense handling in excess of 500 personal injury claims in both state and federal jurisdictions. Along with specializing in the area of personal injury, I have extensive practice experience in the areas of domestic relations, insurance law, real estate law, probate, and corporate law.

MEDIATION/ARBITRATION EXPERIENCE:

Since February of 1997, I have mediated over 4,500 cases with a 97% success ratio. I have mediated cases involving the following subject matters: personal injury, medical malpractice, legal malpractice, accounting malpractice, dram shop liability, libel/slander, real estate, defamation of character, age and employment discrimination, Family Medical Leave Act claims, ADA claims, breach of contract, disputes between insurance carriers, crop damage/loss, sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual molestation of minors, dissolution of marriage, slander, bank and business fraud, and several wrongful death claims.

I have also served as an arbitrator in matters involving personal injury claims, medical malpractice claims, real estate claims, and construction claims involving breach of contract.

Board certified by the American Academy of ADR Attorneys on September 15, 2000. Remain a certified member having served as President and Director of said organization.

Became a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals in January 2015. Membership into NADN is by invitation only and is limited to attorney mediators and arbitrators who have proven experience in those fields. All Academy members have been reviewed and found to meet stringent practice criteria and are amongst the most in-demand neutrals in their respective states.
