

Rick Kolodinsky mediates cases throughout central Florida and is a Supreme Court certified arbitrator.

He is a Florida Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer. Civil Trial certification is the highest level of recognition for knowledge and accomplishment given by the Florida Bar for civil trial lawyers.

He has been inducted into the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA).

Mr. Kolodinsky has earned an “AV” rating, the highest possible status for both legal ability and ethical standards, by Martindale Hubbell, the nation’s oldest and most prestigious legal directory. He is listed in the national Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Mr. Kolodinsky has been recognized by his peers and is listed in the nationwide publication, Leading American Attorneys.

In addition he has served as a member of the Executive Committee for the Volusia Civil Trial Lawyers Association and is a charter member as a ‘Master’ of the Dunn-Blount Inn of Court.

Mr. Kolodinsky is an honors graduate of Rutgers University and holds a Juris Doctor awarded in 1977 from the Rutgers University School of Law.

Mr. Kolodinsky practices in both State and Federal Courts and is admitted to practice before the courts in Florida, as well as the Federal Courts for the districts in Florida, Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals in Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. Kolodinsky served on the Board of Directors of the Florida Justice Association (FJA) a professional, statewide association of approximately 3000 lawyers that works in the legislative and public opinion arenas to protect the constitutional rights of consumers, improve public safety and preserve the civil justice system. In recognition of his dedication to the ideals of the FJA and his work on its behalf, he has twice been awarded the Eagle Talon award.