Summary of Experience

Mr. Gibson is a seasoned trial attorney, having litigated numerous cases in Federal and State Court to decision or verdict, and through appeals, including class action employment cases, administrative proceedings before the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the North and South Carolina Utility Regulatory Commissions and the North Carolina Property Tax Commission. His diverse professional career involves legal and management experience, including private law practice, in-house counsel, officer level management and external management consulting.

He was initially certified as a Mediator in 2009 and has participated in hundreds of mediations as mediator or as counsel to a party. His recent law practice primarily involved representing various agencies and departments of North Carolina's largest County, including the Tax Assessor, Building Code Enforcement and the Board of Elections. He has served as counsel to Livingstone College in Salisbury, North Carolina since 2005, handling a broad range of matters, including employment and construction litigation, academic accreditation and NCAA compliance. Mr. Gibson led the confidential review of management of a collegiate athletic conference, which led to significant reforms of Conference operations.

He has held significant leadership positions in the legal profession, including:

- President of the North Carolina State Bar, the organization responsible for the regulation of the legal profession in the state, including ethics opinions and attorney discipline.
- Member of the Board of Law Examiners, which is responsible for grading the North Carolina Bar Exam and conducting hearings on applicants' character and fitness to be licensed to practice law.
- Director of Lawyers Mutual Insurance Company of North Carolina, serving as Chair of the Claims Committee and as a member of the Governance and Finance and Audit Committees.
- Presented with the Chief Justice's Professionalism Award by the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court for "dedication and commitment to the principles of professionalism in the legal community in North Carolina".
