Roy S. Kobert

☎ Mobile: 321-945-2888

Roy.kobert@gray-robinson.com

Experience:

After 30 years of practicing law, Roy has been repeatedly called upon over the last decade to serve as a designated neutral in a myriad of substantive cases. Board certified for over 15 years, he is a recognized expert in all facets of bankruptcy matters (drafting of consensual Chapter 11 plans of reorganization, pre-suit and pending adversary proceedings involving voidable preferences and fraudulent transfer litigation, fraud in the inducement, and claims objections), as well as a broad range of civil and commercial disputes (breach of contract, non-compete agreements, and restrictive covenants, partnership disputes, banking and Article 9, eminent domain, valuation disputes, business dissolution, landlord/tenant disputes and foreclosure/lien contests).

Mediation Training:

Roy is the first Florida based graduate of the forty hour advanced mediation course conducted by the St. John's University School of Law (New York City) and the Governor Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution.

Mediation-Related Comments from the Bench:

- At a hearing held in open court to confirm the Debtor's Plan of Reorganization, the presiding Judge commented on a four-party mediation, "I do want to thank Mr. Kobert for his services. I have had the good fortune of working with Mr. Kobert as almost a co-mediator in another case and he does a very good job and doesn't give up, even when the going gets rough... So thank you to Mr. Kobert for his hard work." In re: C&D Fruit and Vegetable Co., Inc., Case No. 8:18-bk-00997-CED (September 24, 2018) (Tampa Division)
- Following an 8 party mediation, during consideration of the Mediator's Fee Application the Court commented "I will approve 100% of the fees and 100% of the costs and Mr. Kobert, I do think you did an excellent job here. You really did." In re: Chariots of Palm Beach, Inc., Case No.: 17-19455-PGH (October 11, 2017) (West Palm Beach Division).

- At a hearing held in open court to discuss potential mediators for a foreclosure action amongst counsel, the presiding judge commented, “Mr. Kobert would be an outstanding choice to resolve this.” In re David W Goldman Case No. 8:12-17503-KRM (March 2, 2017) (Tampa Division).
- “The Mediator did an excellent job and successfully mediated [three] controversies.” See December 30, 2013 Order Approving Application for Allowance of Mediation Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses to Mediator, Roy Kobert, Esq. (DE 366) In re: Lourdes Zaczac. Case No.: 6:08-12225-CCJ (Orlando Division).
- Mr. Kobert was found to be both “an experienced mediator” and “a talented mediator” in a reported decision ratifying a mediated result. See In re: Johnson; Afflis v. Johnson (Bankr. M.D. Fla.) 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 3671.

Testimonials From Past Mediation Participants (actual litigants):

- “Mr. Kobert was engaged to mediate a four party business dispute, in which he was selected by the borrower. As a banker, I appreciated his ability to work efficiently and parse through the substantive issues; achieving not only a global financial resolution but resolving competing non-financial issues as well.” M. M., Vice President, Special Assets Manager, (North Florida Region)
- “The Court appointed me as its receiver for an ongoing, successful intellectual property enterprise in which the co-founders could not agree on day to day control or ultimate ownership of their business. Mediation sessions spanned nearly four months. As additional facts were developed, Mr. Kobert painstakingly guided us through the process and kept steering us back on track, which resulted in an executed mediation term sheet that morphed into a settlement agreement. Despite this, the Seminole County Circuit Court Judge was ultimately called upon to adopt and ratify the mediated result in her comprehensive order, thus avoiding the risk and costs associated with a three-week special set trial.” L. H., CPA, PA, Receiver (Tampa)
- “I had a unique vantage point wherein I worked alongside Mr. Kobert addressing investment banking issues between the parties, while Mr. Kobert mediated all of the legal and business issues. Roy has the required legal acumen, but also comprehends the human psyche along with a large dose of common sense to get the job done.” F.L., CIRA, President and Managing Member (Atlanta)
- “Beginning early on Valentine's Day and lasting over two days and nights, Mr. Kobert achieved global peace for me and my family by tackling rehabilitation alimony, revised child support, and a joint recommendation between me and my former spouse to the Department of Children and Families (DCF) regarding supervised visitation and ultimate shared parenting through the age of majority. Based upon my prior mediation experience, most other mediators would have simply declared an impasse at the time that I too thought that a settlement was inconceivable.” Dr. G., M.D. (Polk County, Florida)
