

About

Scott Baughan has been a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil Mediator since 2005. In 2017, Scott transitioned to a full-time mediation practice after a 25-year career in civil trial practice.

Over the course of his trial practice, he has handled many hundreds of litigated matters, including numerous jury trials, arbitrations and appellate proceedings as lead counsel. Scott's experience includes representing both plaintiff and defendant in hundreds of mediations for tort cases ranging from death and catastrophic injury to soft tissue injury, with a heavy concentration in medical malpractice cases.

Similarly, Scott has litigated numerous employment, federal civil rights, insurance disputes and complex commercial and construction cases, including specialized health care related litigation. He has also handled numerous anti-trust matters, billing disputes and practitioner credentialing issues.

Scott has successfully mediated several hundred complex cases to resolution by leveraging the insights he gained as a trial lawyer and applying them to the dispute resolution process.

Education

B.A. ~ Eckerd College, 1988, Economics

J.D. ~ University of Mississippi College of Law, 1992, with honors (class rank 8/129); served on Law Journal Editorial Board

- Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil Mediator
- Supreme Court Certified Appellate Mediator
- Certified U.S. District Court Mediator, Middle District of Florida

Bar Admissions

- The Florida Bar
- District of Columbia
- U.S. Virgin Islands (currently inactive)
- U.S. Middle and Southern Districts of Florida
- 11th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals

Areas Of Practice

- Medical Malpractice
- Death and Catastrophic Injury Cases
- Extracontractual insurance/Bad Faith Disputes
- Complex Construction and Commercial Litigation
- Healthcare Billing and Regulatory Disputes
- Physician Credentialing
- Nursing Home Litigation