

Timothy P. Donahue, Sr. was the sole shareholder of Donahue & Associates LLC in Birmingham, Alabama, from 2002 until early 2024, when he became a full-time neutral.

He had a successful litigation practice specializing in governmental and municipal law, employment law, construction, products liability, and workers' compensation.

Mr. Donahue regularly assists attorneys, businesses and individuals in resolving lawsuits and disputes by providing mediation and other dispute resolution services. Although he is a 40-year litigator, he continues to demonstrate his belief that mediation is the most efficient, expeditious and cost-effective way to handle controversies.

He has tried over 150 jury trials from both the plaintiff and defendant perspective. He has been a Certified Court Mediator since 2012 and uses the skills, experience and knowledge developed throughout his career in the resolution of lawsuits and in performing other dispute resolution services throughout Alabama.

Mr. Donahue was selected as a Fellow by the Litigation Counsel of America, an invitation-only society of less than 0.5 percent of American lawyers. He is rated AV Preeminent and has been listed regularly by Alabama Super Lawyers.

Upchurch Watson White & Max is proud to welcome Tim Donahue to its distinguished panel of neutrals.
