

Boserup Mediation

Viggo Boserup

I have spoken to a number of Viggo's references and they are extremely enthusiastic about his mediation talents. In addition to referring to Mr. Boserup as

- "bright,"
- "outstanding,"
- "did a super job,"
- the references emphasized Viggo's persistence and his effectiveness in achieving settlements... he
- "takes the deal personally,"

■ Education

Princeton University, Class of 1966
Hastings College of the Law, Class of 1969

■ Legal

Viggo began his career as an attorney in 1970, specializing in probate, trusts & estates, tax, finance, oil and gas (including 20+ years of managing working interests in more than 35 oil & gas leases), real estate acquisition, development, and construction as well as the related areas of insurance coverage and liability. In the course of his probate practice, Mr. Boserup has conducted ancillary administrations in the majority of states throughout the western U.S.

■ Real Estate/Construction/Finance Experience

As a businessman, Mr. Boserup has developed both commercial and residential real estate projects and has served as CEO of a national industrial construction company. He was responsible for developments and real estate and industrial construction projects across the country and has managed the daily operation and the strategic planning of a business involving projects with more than 1000 employees in 26 states.

Mr. Boserup has created financial solutions to unusual problems. Some of his real estate and construction financing packages were the first of their kind in the country and continue to serve as models of successful innovative public-sector financing for public-private partnerships throughout the United States.

■ Mediations

Mr. Boserup is a full-time, professional mediator who has mediated more than 3,000 cases involving construction, wrongful termination, property damage, disability, wrongful death, products liability, medical malpractice, estate planning, intellectual property, entertainment matters, personal injury cases, and others. As a mediator of construction and workplace-related disputes, Viggo has designed dispute resolution systems within mid-sized to major institutional environments. He is based in the Santa Monica office of Boserup Mediation.

Boserup Mediation

Viggo Boserup

- “goes the extra distance”
- to “do magic” in
- “extremely complicated, almost insoluble situations”
- and “makes the settlement happen.”

In December, 2004, Viggo was recognized by the Daily Journal as one of the top 50 mediators in the state of California.

A native of Denmark and fluent in both Danish and English, Viggo has taught mediation to hundreds of lawyers, judges, students, teachers, and mental health professionals in both the United States and Europe. Mr. Boserup is a regular contributing author to both domestic and international publications and assists consular offices in the negotiation of transactions as well as the resolution of conflict involving multinational entities.

In recommending Viggo Boserup to co-counsel, Howard S. Fredman, Esq. formerly of Frandzel, Share, Robins, Kaplan & Bloom.
